

“I’d rather die
than be with anyone but you.”

- bella swan

“Leave it to you, Bella.

Anyone else would be better off
when the vampires left town.

But you have to start hanging out with the first monsters you can find.”

- alice cullen

“*I thought
I'd explained it clearly before...*

Bella, I can't live in a world where you don't exist.”

- Edward Cullen

“Hunting vampires is fun.
It’s the best part of this whole mess.”
